Church Deplores Acts of Portugal Anarchists.

DANGEROUS TO WORLD'S PEACE

Rev. Francis T. McCarthy Declares Uprising Was Not Popular Movement, as Shown by Recent Election When Government Won 114

New York, Oct. 18 .- The attitude of the Roman Catholic Church toward the Portuguese revolutionists was emphasized to-day at St. Francis Xavier College by the Rev. Francis T. McCarthy. In his sermon at the 11 o'clock mass Father McCarthy denounced the revolutionists as anarchistic, unrepresentative of the world's peace. The Catholic church, Father McCarthy told a large congregation, earnestly supports any government that is founded on the will of the people. It holds that Christ's advice, "Render ye, therefore, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's," is applicable to any form of government based on justice and the people's will-legitimate authority; and it cannot be silent committed. All Authority Comes from God. "The church and revolution" was Father McCarthy's subject. The church, he said, teaches that all authority comes from God. St. Paul taught that, and
